

“The Fool, The Godly Woman, And The Grace Of God” (Part 1)
1 Samuel 25:1-44

“For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.” (Romans 15:4)

“The fool says in his heart, ‘There is no God.’ They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds; there is none who does good” (Psalm 14:1). “The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, but a wise man listens to advice” (Proverbs 12:15). “A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion” (Proverbs 18:2). “A fool’s lips walk into a fight, and his mouth invites a beating. A fool’s mouth is his ruin, and his lips are a snare to his soul” (Proverbs 18:6-7). “Do not speak in the hearing of a fool, for he will despise the good sense of your words” (Proverbs 23:9).

- (1 Samuel 25:1-3) — What do we know about Nabal?
  - He was from Maon and his business was a mile north in Carmel. He was very rich; he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats (Job 1:3).
  - Nabal was known as a man who was harsh (stubborn, cruel, or hardened) and badly behaved (evil, wicked, or harmful).
  - Nabal was also a Calebite (Numbers 13:31-33; 14:5-10), which would have made him from the tribe of Judah, just like David (Matthew 1:2-6).
  - One of the young men called Nabal a “worthless man” (1 Samuel 2:12; 10:27; 30:21-24). “A great description of a ‘worthless man’ in the book of 1 Samuel would be someone who would listen to no one, but themselves, and only sought their own benefit.”

- (1 Samuel 25:4-13) — Nabal refused to love his neighbor....“For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’” (Galatians 5:14)
  - David is honoring Nabal and showing his desire for Nabal to be blessed and comes to him in friendship (1 Chronicles 12:16-18).
  - When good is done towards us we should be joyful and generous in return. “If anyone returns evil for good, evil will not depart from his house.” (Proverbs 17:13)
  - Nabal was rude and stingy with his abundance. He was not interested in blessing David and his men though they had been a blessing to him. “But if anyone has the world’s goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God’s love abide in him?” (1 John 3:17)

- (1 Samuel 25:36-38) — Nabal was not rich towards God....“But God said to him, ‘Fool! This night your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’ So is the one who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God.” (Luke 12:20-21)
  - Lessons from Luke 12:13-21:
    - Beware of covetousness.
    - Having earthly possessions is not the pinnacle of life.
    - Everything that we have is from God.
    - We need to be rich in heavenly riches, not earthly.
